

St Ives in the 1600s: from Fairs to Flames (Town Walk)

School Visit Activity Information

Key Stage: Two
Learning Outcomes: - Understand what St Ives was like in the 1600s and how the town was very different in the past while also beginning to change into the place it is today. - Discover local history through enquiry, images and a guided town walk to learn about key places and stories from the 17th century. - Enjoy learning outside the classroom through a guided town walk and museum experience, building curiosity about local heritage and helping children feel connected to their community and The Norris Museum.
Session Cost: £1.50 per child (minimum cost £40.00), for one class at a time
Session Schedule:
9:30am	Arrival at the museum Class arrives at the museum and has the opportunity to: - Drop off bags, etc. - Use the toilets - Have snack and/or a drink (brought with them from school) Then walk into town with museum learning team
10:15am	Town Walk Stops include: • The Broadway • Merryland • The White Hart Pub • Oliver Cromwell statue • Free Church passage • The Quay • Bridge Street After last stop, the Norris team member leading the session will walk with the class back to the museum.
11:45am	Time at the museum The length of walk can vary depending on things such as the age of the class, the weather, etc. Class can have a break/lunch/time to explore the museum independently, before returning to school. If this is of interest to you, please ask about break and/or lunch and time to explore the museum when making your booking (there is no additional cost for this, but we do need to ensure the space is available).
